ties, is undeniably a strong document,  $\frac{M}{N_{\rm C}}$  and will, we doubt not, attract general attention throughout the country, especially in this State and at Richmond. The position assumed by Mr. Dawes, that the consent of Congress is neces sary to an agreement or compact be-tween two States, is undoubtedly correct, and his further position that Congress, in the true intent and spirit of the Constitution, never did assent to the present Berkeley and Jefferson boundary of the State is, candor compels us to say, seeming fully sustained.

Anderson The Applegate L. Anderson Rollison Chas Allison Jir. Allison Jir. Allison Jir. Allison Jir. pels us to say, seeming fully sustained.
The dictum of the Supreme Court in the case cited between Georgia and Florida, be as with sufficient directness on our dispute to make it an applicable ruling, and such we have no doubt would be the mind of Congress or of buckey John Boyd Robt. ruling, and such we have no doubt would be the mind of Congress or of the Supreme Court, were the present case before them. We regret the necessity, but nevertheless have no doubt that the confirmation of Congress, at its next session, will be necessary to the confirmation of Berkeley and campbell J M Campbell J Alex Campbell J M Cambell J M Campbell J M Cambball J M make good the cession of Berkeley and Campbe Jefferson to West Virginia by the old Curts J State. That consent will be obtained in all likelihood with but little difficulty. The present temper of the Richmond people is to resist our equitable claim, but that will not prejudice our Caldwell A L. success in the least before the next Congress. The people of Berkeley and Jefferson are with us in this matter.

Jefferson are with us in this matter.

The Richmond Whig comes to us with a long article urging Gov. Peirpoint to call the legislature together in order, before the next session of Congress, to ratify the Constitutional amendment and set Virginia right on the slavery question. It may be well enough to set Virginia right on that question, and several others, but the Whig is inexcussibly ignorant, if ignorant at all, of the fact that the Alexandria legislature ratified the amendment last winter, in February, and hence Huston Winterson Last winter, in February, and hence last winter, in February, and hence Huston Win 1835 Hedges J (dec'd) 23 05 there can be no more ratification. It is Inglebright Wm 82 35 not certainly very palatable to the Union people of Virginia to be urged to set themselves right a second time.

MARTIN MEREDITH LIPSCOME, of Richmond, Virginia, is a brave and an original man, and deserves to get more votes than he probably will receive at the coming Congressional election. He was one of the three Union men who buried Ulric Dahlgren in a humane and tender manner. On amouncing that he is a candidate for Congress, he says that he is "a plain working man, a mechanid," that "never during all these Moton R M that he is "a plain working man, a me-chanid," that "never during all these dreadful years just past has there been one pulsation of my heart which has not been true to the Union and the glo-Nicols J D Nicholson D rious banner of our common country." His project for the treatment of secessionists is altogether new. He says:

sionists is altogether new. He says:

"I should do injustice to myself did I not advert to the disposition which, in my opinion, should be made of any secessionists that may exist or that may hereafter show themselves. I would have the general government establish in each State lunatic asylums for this wicked and unfortunate class of persons, whose care and custody shall be under the superintendence of the Freedmen's Bureau."

at Pittsburg, early on Thursday morning—sometime, as it is supposed, between one and three o'clock. The Dispatch says that nothing like it in fiendpatch says that nothing like it in fiend ish atrocity ever occurred in that city.

The face was crushed in, as if struck with great violence or with some heavy substance—the upper jaw broken at the center, one tooth knocked out, and it benose of the nose also broken. The bones of the nose also broken. The nose and upper lip were lacerated and the eyes much blackened. There appeared to be three dilferent cuts upon the throat, one beside the main wound, (transversely across the neek) under the left ear, and one further back on the same side. The carotid artery and wind pipe were severed. An equally terrible wound was that on the left side near the spine. It was of sufficient length and depth to admit the four fingers of the physician's hand. The cutting of the throat was evidently sidelies. ingers of the physician's hand. The sillinger of the throat was evidently done after the infliction of the other wounds, and doubtless when the man was already dead. A large stone or boulder, stained with blood, was found near the body, and was doubtless used in crushing the face of the deceased.

No clue to the murderers has been obtained. The name of the victim is unknown. The dead was dead Campichael G. Campbell C.N. Cumuligham J.

unknown. The deed was done on Cronier Joh Boyd's Hill. The motive for doing it Conklin H

Conflict with these words; "We earnessly recommend this history as a work of marked ability and perfect good faith. No person of candor, whatever may be his opinions, could read it withfeeding indebted to the author."

THE Pairmout National, in alluding Hagerian, Homes H Hagerian of Russell, says: THE Fairmont National, in alluding to the pardon of Russell, says;

We are more than sorry to hear of the pardon of Charles W. Russell; and to our mind there is no question, if President Johnson had lived in West Virginia and known this arch traitor as West Virginians know him, it would have taken a stronger team than the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company to have secured his pardon. But there is one consideration, the President's lowernesses one consideration, the President's pardon does not enfranchise any inun. And in Maryland, where Russell has settled, he will have the exquisite please ure of submitting to the laws without a voice in making them.

SAINT'S REST; (wich is in the ) stait uv Noo Gersy,) Ang, 20, 1865. ]

I wuz born a Whig. My parents wuz a member of that party, leastways my mother wuz, and she alluz did the votin, allowin my father, uv course, to go thro the manual labor of castin the sallot, in deference to the laws uv the country, which does not permit females for niggers to yote, no matter how much intelleck they may hev in 2 them.

In all probability I shood hev cast my lot with that party hed not a insiger of the country, which astisfied me that the Dimocrisy was my appropria and nateral abiding place. It wuz in this wise:

In a playful mood, wun nite, I bustid open a grosery, and appropriatid, ez a jest, what loose change ther wuz in the drawer, (alars I in these degenerit days up apper currency, the enterprism theef hez to steel at 40 per sent, discount,) and sich other notions ez strück my boylsh fancy. I indoest a nigger boy, sumwhat younger than myself to ald me, and when we hed bagged the game, I, feelin in my pride, ez wun hevin the proud Anglo-Sacksum blood a coursin toomulchusly thro his vanes, what cheef Justis Taney hez since made law, to wit: that the nigger hez no rites which the white man is bound to respeck, whaled him till he resined the entire proseeds uv the spekulashen to me. The degraded wreted, devoid uv every prinsiple uv honor, blowed on me; we wuz both arrestid.

The Justis uv the Pease wuz a Whig! and after a hurried eggsaminashen, he sentenst me! one uv his own race! one uv his own brood in the cheef offender!

My mother beggd and prayd, with teers a stremin down her venrable cheeks faster than she could wipe em tup with her gingum apern, that the arrangement might be reversed—the nigger the 30 and 1 the 10, but no! Cold ez a stun, inflexible ez iron, bludis ez a turnip, I was inkarseratid and stayed on the evening uv the Soth day, a sentensal individual view.

my time. Sullenly I emerged from them walls, on the evening uv the 30th day, a changed indivijoel. Liftin my hands 2 heven, I vowd 3 vows, to-wit:

3. That the water I bed consoomed while in doorance vile, wuz the last that wood ever find its way, undilooted

SUPERIOR WINE.—Wine of excellent quality is made by Mr. Speer, of Passaic, New Jersey, from cultivated sambuco grapes, a stock imported from Portugal, which grow as large as Isabella grapes. The wine is exceedingly agreeable, and the grape from which it is made gives it superior virtues and medical qualities that are more beneficial to the human system than wines from other grape or fruit.—Med.
